Our business is structured in three areas. We have a strong reputation and track record for our work in Accounts & Audit and Tax. As we have grown, so has our expertise as Specialist Advisors that understand our clients' business and the competitive environment they work in.

Our core business areas work together to ensure that our clients are offered a comprehensive and all round approach to meeting the challenges they currently face and the opportunities they encounter.

Accounts & Audit

Our Accounts & Audit team provide quality specialised advice, guidance and support to all our clients, as well as assistance with meeting legal and statutory obligations.

We help our clients meet the compliance requirements that go along with being in business. We challenge you to make your business better every day.

Advisory

In a rapidly changing world, business owners must be innovative and proactive in developing their business, making sure their business offering matches their customer needs whilst taking initiatives to maximise new opportunities.

Regardless of client size and our role in the business, our focus is the same – we ensure we always understand your specific business so that we are correctly positioned to guide and support you to success.

Tax

Our experienced team of Chartered Tax Advisors are committed to minimising the tax burden for our corporate and personal clients.

We offer expert tax advice and identify tax efficient solutions to suit the needs of companies, businesses and individuals, regardless of size or complexity.

Our experience, knowledge and commitment to our clients are the foundation of our business. The expertise we have built up over the years empowers our new generation of innovators and future thinkers within CavanaghKelly and across our wide ranging client base.

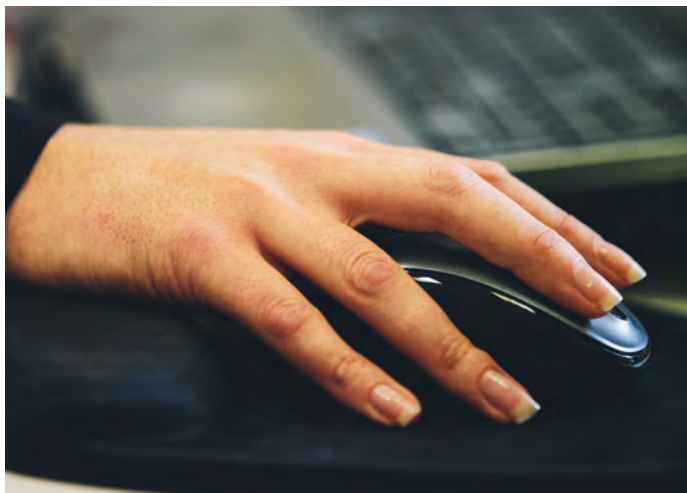

We have strong long lasting relationships with our clients built on sound advice and an inherent trust in our expertise.

Working with clients across Northern Ireland, the Republic of Ireland and Great Britain, we deliver sound, quality business advice. We provide our clients with the comprehensive support they need to succeed in today's challenging business environment.

As one of the area's largest accountancy practices, we service the business needs of Northern Ireland's largest home grown businesses, yet continue to care for and provide a top-class, value for money service to sole traders, partnerships and charitable organisations across a range of sectors.

Our team of over 80 professionals provides real time solutions to the needs of new and established businesses as they grow and develop.

Our people make things happen. At CavanaghKelly we put instinct and progress at the heart of everything we do. We're problem solvers, looking logically and innovatively at complex business issues and creating the solutions to help our clients' progress.

It's simple. We believe we are different. We are a firm that drives success through teamwork and diversity of thought. Professionalism and expertise are important to us. Equally so is partnership and trust.

We create the opportunities for our clients to enhance and maximise their business performance. Each and every one of our team instinctively recognises what is best for our clients, providing the right advice for individual business needs.

Accounts & Audit

Our Accounts & Audit team provide quality accounting and audit services to a wide range of clients. Our experienced team provide specialist advice, guidance and support to all our clients as well as assistance in meeting legal and statutory obligations. We help you meet the compliance requirements that go along with being in business and we challenge you to make your business better every day.

In today's challenging landscape, businesses require more than the statutory annual accounts service. Our client-focused commercial approach to accounts preparation and statutory audit means that you get the maximum benefit from the accounts process. We want to ensure that you see the accounts preparation and financial reporting process as a core part of your business. For many of our clients, we are in contact regularly – daily, weekly, monthly. We help you get real time visibility on how your business is performing.

We want to know you and your business. We will work with you to understand your specific business needs and tailor our offering, allowing us to deliver an honest and valuable service that will help your business to thrive.

future

Maximising Performance

We prepare you for the long road.

In today's world, tomorrow is too late to discover how your business is performing. We can help you to know your business as it grows. We will implement solid financial management reporting systems to allow you to see how your business is performing in real time.

Job costing, divisional reporting and regular KPIs across all areas of the business will help you to better understand performance. Strong performance can be scaled up. Poor performance can be attended to. Ultimately there are no surprises at the end of the year. We provide the information you need to drive performance, when you need it.

Tax

Our experienced team of Chartered Tax Advisors are committed to minimising the tax burden for our corporate and personal clients, offering expert tax advice and identifying tax efficient solutions to suit the needs of companies, businesses and individuals, regardless of size or complexity.

We stay close to legislative changes and, through continuous research on tax matters across these islands, take pride in identifying new tax opportunities for clients every day.

We work with our clients to ensure they can make the right decision with the right advice.

“Our team offer specialist advice tailored for the needs of different industries, providing timely advice on the best way forward for you and your business.”

Our people are local to our business communities, down to earth and passionate about our clients' progress in the world. Regardless of size or sector we create long lasting relationships that are driven by results and built on honesty and trust.

We are committed to working with you to fully understand your needs and concerns and the fundamental challenges you face, partnering with you to deliver the best outcome.

Advisory

In the rapidly changing face of the world today, business owners must be innovative and proactive in developing their business, making sure their offering matches their customer needs whilst taking initiatives to maximise new opportunities. Solid and robust controls are needed across the business as well as timely management information on performance.

Regardless of client size and our role in the business, our focus is always the same – we ensure we understand your specific business so that we are correctly positioned to guide and support you to success.
